Providence Health is proud to be a part of the Midlands. As a leader in our community, we strive to provide the highest quality care possible—both inside and outside our hospital walls—and are committed to our region’s overall well-being. By creating places where people choose to come for healthcare, physicians want to practice and employees want to work, we are continuing the Catholic faith-based ministry and legacy of caring for persons whom God places in our care, that began with the Sisters of Charity of St. Augustine in 1938. Thank you for supporting our mission of Making Communities Healthier by extending Christ’s Healing Ministry.

— Terry Gunn, Market CEO, Providence Health

In 2018, we...

- added 44 employed and affiliated providers
- made more than $18.4 million in capital improvements
- distributed a payroll of $122,007,300 to 1,558 employees
- donated more than $11.7 million in services to those in need
- paid $4,522,034 in taxes

Inviting the best possible providers into our community and supporting them is essential to ensuring access to high quality care. Last year, we added providers in a number of specialties, including cardiology, emergency and family medicines, orthopedics and urology.

By continually investing in our facilities, we’re helping to ensure that we continue to meet our community’s healthcare needs. Last year’s investments included our new Fairfield freestanding emergency department and the renovation of the bistro at our Northeast campus.

We strive to create an environment where talent is recognized, job satisfaction is valued and our employees can effectively use their skills to provide high quality care and service.

Delivering care to all of our neighbors, regardless of their ability to pay, is foundational to our mission and our commitment to our community.

We are proud to be a leader in our region, and our dedication to ensuring fiscal responsibility extends both to our hospital and to our community.
