L. Garrison Morgan, MD

DR. L. GARRISON MORGAN JOINS PROVIDENCE HEART

COLUMBIA, S.C. – Providence Health is pleased to announce the addition of L. Garrison Morgan, MD, is board certified in internal medicine and cardiovascular disease, to its team of cardiologists at Providence Heart.

Dr. Morgan received his medical degree from the University of South Carolina School of Medicine here in Columbia and completed his residency in Internal Medicine at Palmetto Health Richland/University of South Carolina. He completed a fellowship in cardiovascular disease at the Medical College of Georgia.

He furthered his expertise by completing a sub-specialty fellowship in Interventional and Structural Cardiology at Mount Sinai Medical Center of Florida/Columbia University where he trained comprehensively in the treatment of complex coronary artery disease as well as newly emerging therapies in percutaneous structural/valvular heart disease.

“While completing my training in cardiology, I wanted to delve into the details buried within the more commonly studied specialty of Cardiovascular Disease, in order to treat my patients more effectively,” says Dr. Morgan. “I’m excited to be able to bring this focus to such an esteemed practice as Providence Heart and its parent system Providence Health, known for leading cardiac care in the Midlands.”

Dr. Morgan has professional affiliations with the American Medical Association, South Carolina Medical Association, Society for Cardiovascular Angiography and Interventions, and the American College of Cardiology. He has given multiple lectures and presentations at local and national medical conferences and has published papers on a wide array of cardiovascular topics.

Providence Heart, located at 1655 Bernardin Avenue in Columbia, South Carolina, provides comprehensive cardiac care to diagnose and treat heart and vascular conditions. To make an appointment with Dr. Morgan, call (803) 409-7170 or visit <http://www.providencephysicians-sc.com/locations/providence-heart/>.
