LINDY P. WHITE NAMED NEW CHIEF EXECUTIVE OFFICER AT PROVIDENCE HEALTH NORTHEAST

COLUMBIA, SC – Lindy P. White, MBA, FABC has been named as the new Chief Executive Officer for Providence Health Northeast. Lindy joins Providence Health Northeast with almost 20 years of experience as both a hospital CEO and CFO. She most recently served as CEO at Franklin Woods Community Hospital/Woodridge Hospital part of the Mountain States Health Alliance in Johnson City, Tenn.

“I’m pleased to join the leadership team at Providence Health, and I look especially forward to participating in the exciting growth of services at the Providence Health Northeast campus,” said Lindy White. “This is a great opportunity to help turn an accomplished boutique facility into a flourishing full-service facility, providing a full range of services to the people in its community.”

Market CEO, Scott Campbell states, “Lindy brings to Providence exceptional leadership skills. She will be a tremendous asset both to Providence Northeast and our Providence Health System in total.”

Ms. White earned her Master in Business Administration and Certification in Public Administration at Old Dominion University in Norfolk, Virginia. She earned her Bachelor of Science in Accounting/Economics at Emory and Henry College in Emory, Virginia. She was certified as a Fellow of the Advisory Board Company (FABC) in 2011. In addition, Lindy has a certification in Just Culture and is a member of the American College of Healthcare Executives (ACHE).
